PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND REDACT ACCORDINGLY PRIOR TO UPLOADING THEM. PROOFS OF CLAIM AND ATTACHMENTS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ANYONE TO VIEW ONLINE.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

To Whom It May Concern:

Lisa Diane Wahnnon and her minor child, Benjamin Carlsen-Wahnnon, seeked representation for the PG&E lawsuit mid-January. Soon after, our law firm decided to offer Mrs. Wahnnon and her child representation in the lawsuit due to the circumstance Mrs. Wahnnon advised Watts Guerra of:

1. Due to the 2017 Tubbs Fire which completely destroyed Mrs. Wahnnon's family home, Mrs. Wahnnon took a leave of absence from her career job of being a nurse due to the enormous amount of stress her family was under. Subsequently, Mrs. Wahnnon decided it would be best for her to focus all her efforts on rebuilding her home for the sake of her son. In 2017, Mrs. Wahnnon went through the heavy burden of completing a content list to receive the 100% of her policy limit for personal property. In 2018, Mrs. Wahnnon completed her rebuild and was able to move back in with her son Benjamin.
2. In 2018, Mrs. Wahnnon had zero interest in suing PG&E. Mrs. Wahnnon has never seen herself as the type of person to pursue or participate in lawsuit. However, once the Kincade Fire happened, it changed Mrs. Wahnnon's perspective. She could see the Geyserville fire from her home. She was having thoughts of losing her home again. Instead of falling asleep, her son, Benjamin, stayed up all night as the second night of the Kincade fire took place because he didn't want his mother or himself to burn alive. Mrs. Whanon and Benjamin were then under mandatory evacuation. Mrs. Whanon expresses this time as reliving terrible memories. She describes the emotions her and Benjamin felt as PTSD. Due to the holidays and settling back into their new home, Mrs. Whanon has invested her time in trying to make things as normal as possible for her son Benjamin.

Mrs. Wahnnon has thought it over, she wants PG&E to pay for the turmoil they have caused her family. Mrs. Wahnnon is asking to," Please consider accepting her family's case, the emotional, physical damages from that 2017 fire, and repeated threats of PG&E fire damage, has changed my perspective." Please consider her wish.

Thank you.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

To Whom It May Concern:

Lisa Diane Wahnnon and her minor child, Benjamin Carlsen-Wahnnon, seeked representation for the PG&E lawsuit mid-January. Soon after, our law firm decided to offer Mrs. Wahnnon and her child representation in the lawsuit due to the circumstance Mrs. Wahnnon advised Watts Guerra of:

1. Due to the 2017 Tubbs Fire which completely destroyed Mrs. Wahnnon's family home, Mrs. Wahnnon took a leave of absence from her career job of being a nurse due to the enormous amount of stress her family was under. Subsequently, Mrs. Wahnnon decided it would be best for her to focus all her efforts on rebuilding her home for the sake of her son. In 2017, Mrs. Wahnnon went through the heavy burden of completing a content list to receive the 100% of her policy limit for personal property. In 2018, Mrs. Wahnnon completed her rebuild and was able to move back in with her son Benjamin.
2. In 2018, Mrs. Wahnnon had zero interest in suing PG&E. Mrs. Wahnnon has never seen herself as the type of person to pursue or participate in lawsuit. However, once the Kincade Fire happened, it changed Mrs. Wahnnon's perspective. She could see the Geyserville fire from her home. She was having thoughts of losing her home again. Instead of falling asleep, her son, Benjamin, stayed up all night as the second night of the Kincade fire took place because he didn't want his mother or himself to burn alive. Mrs. Whanon and Benjamin were then under mandatory evacuation. Mrs. Whanon expresses this time as reliving terrible memories. She describes the emotions her and Benjamin felt as PTSD. Due to the holidays and settling back into their new home, Mrs. Whanon has invested her time in trying to make things as normal as possible for her son Benjamin.

Mrs. Wahnnon has thought it over, she wants PG&E to pay for the turmoil they have caused her family. Mrs. Wahnnon is asking to," Please consider accepting her family's case, the emotional, physical damages from that 2017 fire, and repeated threats of PG&E fire damage, has changed my perspective." Please consider her wish.

Thank you.
